MR. CALLAHAN 9/17/75

H. N. BASSETT

JOHN P. MOHR
FORMER ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR

On 9/17/75 Mr. Mohr telephonically contacted me and advised that he had received a phone call from Ron Kessler, reporter for the Washington Post newspaper, and Kessler asked Mr. Mohr for any comments that he might like to make concerning the recent article in Time Magazine which alleged that Mr. Mohr had made the decision to destroy the note received from Oswald. Mr. Mohr advised that he told Kessler he would make no comment whatsoever. Kessler then wanted to know how the law suit was progressing with regard to Mr. Tolson's will, and Mr. Mohr also advised that he told Kessler he had no comment to make.

Shortly after this phone call Mr. Mohr received a call from an Associated Press reporter and he wanted to know if he had any comment concerning the article appearing on page one of today's New York Times relative to the Oswald matter. Mr. Mohr advised he informed this individual that he had not seen the article; however, he had no comment to make.
